

Python Crush Course Power Ranking 1st Round

Grader: Brian Heckman

May 16th, 2022

Week 1 is in the books, and it is time for our way too early python crash course POWER RANKINGS!! The theme this week is going to be categories because I got a surprising (pleasant) number of entries to end the day. Amazing job everyone that has submitted, and if you haven't that's okay there's still plenty of time 😊.

KADAN

Kadan Lottick

It's tough to win best python trainee when you're the subject expert but when you send answers in binary the grading scale doesn't quite know how to handle that.

CLUBHOSE LEADERS

Maxwell Miller

Clean code, early submission, cheeky joke in the reply email.. not much more you could ask from Max early on. People are wondering if his python skill was elite before he even enrolled for the class, though.

Richard Hong

I think this entry came before I even sent out the assignment. That's going to be tough to beat.

NO NONSENSE

Jonah Schiavo

Is there anything better in life than just getting sent a wall of code? I guess that's what I deserve for assigning homework. Code was right though.

Brian Ferrell

Screenshot of the output. Love that. I trust you, don't worry.

UNDER PROMISE OVER DELIVER

Nothing better than letting me know you might not be able to get it done in time because of deliverables and still producing! Unfortunately, this is my go-to strategy so I can't give you too many bonus points lolol. Just kidding, I appreciate you guys still getting this done.

AIDANS

Speaks for itself. This group is going to fight to the end for Best Aidan.

John Mangan

Earliest entry of the Aidans. Something to be said for being fast out the gate. Does he have the endurance to keep it up? We'll find out, hopefully.

Aidan Mangan

Veteran presence but I must dock points for leaving the generic email and message as the first item in the list. If I got that email I'm hitting unsubscribe immediately and probably dying horribly because there's no chance I return it. Lives are on the line!!

Aidan Kelly

Rich Strike?

I SHOULD GO TO OFFICE HOURS TOMORROW AND SAY HI TO BRENDAN

Nate Philip

IN THE HUNT

I've spent way too much time making myself laugh at this point. But this group deserves props for just getting the job done. And you can easily jump up to a clubhouse leader if you bring me dirt on the current top dogs 😊

Aaron Tsai

Nick Pyrih

Daniel Frame

Trevor Beresford

Alex Zilli

Thomas Ragone

PTO NO EXCUSES

Will Baar

Snapchats of you 'watching' the trainings don't count, even if you're on PTO. I guess with the time change EOD means something different for you. It's 5 o'clock somewhere.. and I'm still waiting.
